The term 'mental Naxal' is not for the opposition; for those with Maoist, separatist ideologies : Kiren Rijiju

New Delhi : Union Parliamentary Affairs Minister Kiren Rijiju on Sunday clarified Prime Minister Narendra Modi's use of the term 'mental Naxal'. He said that the Prime Minister did not call the leaders of the opposition parties 'mental Naxal', but the term was used for Maoists, separatists and people with the ideology of dividing India. Rijiju clarified the meaning of the Prime Minister's statement through a post on social media platform X. He said that those who support Maoism, reject the Indian Constitution, stand by the separatists and support Article 370, as well as those who are trying to separate Northeast India from the rest of the country, have been called 'mental Naxals'. Along with his post, Rijiju also quoted an old statement by Sharjeel Imam, in which he talked about separating Northeast India from the country.

Meanwhile, Prime Minister Narendra Modi, while addressing the nation from the ramparts of the Red Fort on Saturday on the occasion of Independence Day, had used the term 'mental Naxals'. He had said that such people need to be isolated. After this, the opposition parties claimed that the Prime Minister's warning was aimed at the opposition parties and leaders who oppose the government's policies. Rijiju dismissed these allegations and said that the Prime Minister did not call the leaders of the opposition parties 'mental Naxals'. He clarified that this term has been used for people who support Maoist ideology, reject the Constitution or have separatist ideas against the unity and integrity of the country.

3. The parent Company has discontinued its share trading business with effect from 1st April 2026. Accordingly, the Company is now operating only in a single business segment, namely Real Estate. Therefore, in accordance with Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 108 – Operating Segments, segment reporting has not been presented, as the Company operates in only one reportable segment.
4. As the parent Company has discontinued its share trading activities with effect from 1st April 2026, the entire closing inventory of shares as on 31st March, 2026 has been reclassified and transferred to Investments at the closing market price as on 31st March, 2026. Accordingly, the amount of Rs. 4.38 lakhs reported as sale of shares during the quarter ended 30th June, 2026 does not represent an actual sale transaction. It is merely an internal transfer from Inventory to Investments and, therefore, should not be considered as revenue from share trading activities.
5. The parent Company was registered with the Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO) in June 2026. Due to the delayed registration, the Company did not make the requisite contributions towards Provident Fund (PF) and Employees' State Insurance (ESI) up to May 2026, although the applicable statutory threshold for coverage had already been crossed. The Company has commenced compliance with the applicable PF and ESI provisions from the date of registration.
