T20 MUMBAI LEAGUE | Skipper Lad lavishes praise on Sooryavanshi's exploits

MSC Maratha Royals ready to defend title in fearless style

MUMBAI

Defending champions Mumbai South Central Maratha Royals are approaching the forthcoming T20 Mumbai League season with the same fearless mindset that helped them clinch the title last year, captain Siddhesh Lad said on Tuesday.

Lad said the team would not allow the tag of defending champions to affect their preparation despite carrying greater expectations this season.

"We were like underdogs going into the tournament last year. Before the tournament, we had won five out of five practice games. Being champions is always a special feeling, but this year we want to start from zero," Lad said, on the sidelines of the MSC Maratha Royals' press conference ahead of the T20 Mumbai League.

"There will be more respect for us this season and people will be more aware about our team, but we just want to continue the process that we are following."

The Maratha Royals captain said the side wanted to continue playing the aggressive brand of cricket that brought success in the previous edition.

"We played fearless cricket last season and dominated the tournament. We want to continue playing the same brand of cricket this year as well," he said.

Lad credited the franchise management for providing IPL-like preparation facilities to the squad ahead of the tournament.

"Our preparations have been really good. The coaches and owners have supported us throughout the preparation phase. The facilities that an IPL team gets have also been provided to us, from practice games to physios, trainers and recovery support," he said.

Speaking about the influence of Rajasthan Royals youngster Vaibhav Sooryavanshi on young cricketers, Lad said the batter's game awareness and fearless approach had become an inspiration for the next generation. "I think the game has evolved now and something about Vaibhav Sooryavanshi is very special. It is not just about the power-hitting, but the game awareness that he has, which makes him very special," Lad said.

"The young generation has been following Vaibhav a lot and I feel there will be many more players like him in tournaments such as the Mumbai Premier League and other leagues because there is a lot of talent in India."

Lad also said Mumbai cricket had consistently produced talented youngsters capable of succeeding at the highest level. "Mumbai has always produced such talent. You look at Sarfaraz Khan, Yashasvi Jaiswal and Prithvi Shaw, all of them showed their talent at a very young age."

French Open

Top-ranked Sinner loses in the second round

Overwhelming favorite Jannik Sinner is out of the French Open in the second round.

The top-ranked Sinner struggled with the heat and lost to 56th-ranked Juan Manuel Cerundolo 3-6, 2-6, 7-5, 6-1, 6-1 after wasting a chance to serve for the match on Thursday.

Sinner was on a 30-match winning streak stretching back to February and he was widely expected to complete a career Grand Slam by taking the only big title missing in his tennis career — especially with two-time reigning champion Carlos Alcaraz out due to an injured right wrist.

Sinner bent over on the clay court in apparent exhaustion multiple times and was hardly even running for shots as the match wore on, resorting to drop shots and serve-and-volley tactics to try and shorten the points.

He attempted to cool himself with a hand-held fan on changeovers and put bags of ice around his neck.

"It's tough for him. I couldn't win more than three games by set. So I think I was a little bit lucky. ... He was deserving to win in this match. But then I don't know what happened. ... I feel sorry for him and hope he recovers."

start of the match was 29 degrees C (84 F) and rose to 32 C (90 F).

Cerundolo didn't celebrate too much when it was over, just producing a little wave to the crowd.

"It's tough for him," Cerundolo said. "I couldn't win more than three games by set. So I think I was a little bit lucky. ... He was deserving to win in this match. But then I don't know what happened. ... I feel sorry for him and hope he recovers."

Sinner was serving for the match in the third set at 5-4, 0-40 when he bent over on the court and then walked to his chair. He asked for assistance and left the court. His entire light blue outfit was soaked through with sweat.

After losing the set 7-5, Sinner received medical attention and left the court. Minerals were added to his drink when he returned but Sinner wasn't able to recuperate. Sinner also struggled in the heat at the Australian Open against Eliot Spizzirri in January. The roof was closed and the third-round match swung his way.

Sinner last lost on February 19 in the Qatar Open quarterfinals.
