In the year 2013, certain disputes arose between National Spot Exchange Limited (NSE) and NK Proteins Private Limited, which resulted in the initiation of civil and criminal proceedings against entities forming part of the NK Group, including certain directors, companies, and other associated persons. However, it is clarified that neither of the Promoters is debarred from accessing or participating in the securities market, and they continue to be eligible to undertake transactions in securities, including acquisition of securities. Further, the NK Group including its shareholders has challenged the aforesaid civil and criminal proceedings before appropriate judicial forums, and the matters are presently sub-judice.
